NOTES:

- This is an indicative shopping list. Please feel free to buy any other brand of oil paint as per your budget (online or from a nearby art store).
- If you already have a makeup brush at home that you no longer use, you can skip buying a mop brush altogether. But kindly make sure it is similar to the size of the brush I've mentioned above.
- An easel is not required. In fact, I highly recommend just leaning your painting against a wall on top of a desk or on the floor so that you can use the proper amount of pressure for the brushwork without having the painting wobbling around.

HAPPY SHOPPING!
